Dear Mr. Weisberg:

It was nice talking with you the other day. I'm glad we finally got together on all of this.

We all agreed that the figure you mentioned was reasonable. I'm enclosing a check that will cover all of your services and any use we make of your research or writing, in our series on assassination in America. In addition to this payment, as I mentioned to you on the phone, I have made reference to you as an investigator and to your books in Jim's piece on J.F.K.

I'll be in touch on the forthcoming projects on King and Robert Kennedy, which are of course, covered by the enclosed check.

Sincerely,

Laurence Gonzales
